

David Stewart - Engagement Leader

502-759-1901, david.stewart@theleanway.com

Mr. Stewart joins ILS bringing 18 years of manufacturing experience to our transformation mission. With a strong background in Quality and Production Management, he is skilled at helping clients focus on flow and process kaizen to create an effective lean work environment. Beyond rapid transformation, he provides key clients with the management tools required for building a culture of continuous improvement and the application of lean principles. He has personally lead transformation activities in process, manufacturing, and support operations.